Oakwood

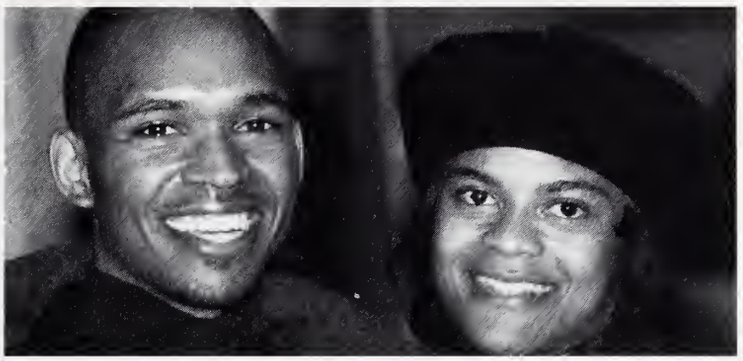

What would Oakwood College be without its students? What would dorms be if there were no residents? What purpose would classrooms serve if there were no students?

The Oakwood Legacy was first introduced to fewer than twenty-four students and four teachers in 1896. The baton has been carried through decades and is currently being ushered into the twenty-first century. The Oakwood vision has spread throughout the world into every field embracing the development of each and every one of our God-given faculties. This everlasting song of education has been wonderfully orchestrated by our great and almighty God. Our God has mercifully used people like you and me as instruments. He was thinking about you and your future when He divinely touched this land. He was thinking about you and your future when He upgraded this institution from a junior college to the institution it is today.

God was thinking about you when He blessed this yearbook staff with means and resources. This yearbook was constructed by the students for the student. These pictorial memoirs depict our days and nights. This yearbook is dedicated to you, the true essence of Oakwood College... the student body.

In loving memory of Cedric Osborne April 3, 1977 to January 21, 1998

Cedric Osborne, 20, died in his sleep on Wednesday, January 21, 1998. He his survived by his mother, Sharon Robinson, his father, Julian Osborne, and two younger brothers, Brandon and Colin.

Cedric, or Ced as he was known by his friends, was a music major at Oakwood College. He is remembered as being a fun-loving guy, who always had a kind word and always wore a smile.

Ced, this is for you. . .

Cedric was a wonderful person to be around. I grew up with him in grade school, I also went to school with him throughout high school and of course college. The one thing that will stick in my mind is that he always made me laugh. He was pleasant person to be around and I always felt better about myself. He cheered me up all the time and I'm going to really miss him.

—Mia McKenzie

Cedric, he was good friend to me, a close pal, someone you could talk to. He always had a smile on his face and he was a ladies man. I just wanted to say rest in peace Cedric, I'm going to miss you.

—Robin Callis

He was my cousin. He was just a good person, a nice young man, helpful. He had a real love for music. He was a good friend, just very laid back, calm person never caused any trouble. He was just a good person to be around.

—James Lewis

Cedric was a friend among friends;he was a great guy. I am going to miss him a lot, but I know when the time comes he'll be up there in heaven.

—Bryant Goodine

Cedric was cool dude. Anybody that knew him, it wasn't like they could say they that whenever Cedric came around, that when I would leave or he would leave, I would always have a smile because he was always funny, a joker. That is just the way he was. At choir rehearsal he was always getting in trouble because he was always making people laugh. That is just the one the thing that I remember the most about him; he made me smile, he made my day a lot better.

—Kristen Seard

The one thing that I remember themost about Cedric is that he never cared what people thought about him-he was just who he was. For graduation he and I marched together, and before we went out he said, Mandisa, we can't go out like that-we have to do something different- we have to walk from side to side like we're just having the best time of our lives.' I said no, our parents were watching, but we did it almost the whole way down the aisle. It was so fun. That's onething I'll always remember about him, he was who we was.

—Mandisa Newman

I just wanted to say that I miss you Ced, and I am going to do all that I can to keep your memory going.

—Darryl Hampton

Cedric was an individual. He always kept it real. He'd never lie, he'd just be honest, no matter what the consequences. He was a funny person, he was always ready to laugh, but he didn't really like to make fun of people. He'd always say, Go head, go head,' (meaning to stop) when people started making fun of somebody. He was good friend.

—Phillip McIver

"Jesus said unto her, I am the resurection, and the life: he that believeth in me, through he were dead, yet shall he live. . ."

John 11:25 KJV

In Loving Memory of Roland McLaurin

July 20, 1977 - February 7, 1998

Roland "Cornbread" McLaurin's death came as a shock to many students on this campus. The nature of his death was a tragic reminder of how fragile life is. Roland's family and friends choose to remember him as a caring and considerate person.

Roland was a sweet friend who put you before himself. He did not show his emotions, but he was sensitive person. A friend of his broke her finger and had to go to the hospital. He called all the way from New Orleans to see how she was doing. He was always caring and willing to help someone.

-Nadia Joseph

Roland was a very caring, thoughtful, and considerate person. I could always come with to him with my problems. He gave excellent advice. I got to see a soft side that no one ever saw. He was "real."

-Mia McKenzie

He was willing to do anything for his friends and give anything he had. He had a good sense of humor, was outgoing, friendly, and softhearted. People looked at the outside, but if you got to know him, he was a different person.

-Lisa Thorn

He was the first person I met when I got down here. He attempted to show me the ropes of college life before I actually started as a freshman.

-Urvia McDowell

A Message From the President

Warm memories, lasting friendships, professional training, spiritual encounters -- these are some of the elements in the Oakwood experience. Another year, another graduating class will now go down in history.

As I reflect on the year, I offer you, the Oakwood Man and the Oakwood Woman, the following points to remember:

• Remember to be a lifelong learner. Whatever the challenge, problem, or encounter, learn from it. Pull from it lessons for life.

• Remember to do your best, your balanced best, in whatever you put your hands to do. Many people do a job: fewer people do the job well or excel at it. That's your challenge to go the extra mile; put for the extra effort.

• Remember that this life is only preparation for the life to come -- heaven. Therefore, make your life decision in light of eternity, not the convenience of the moment.

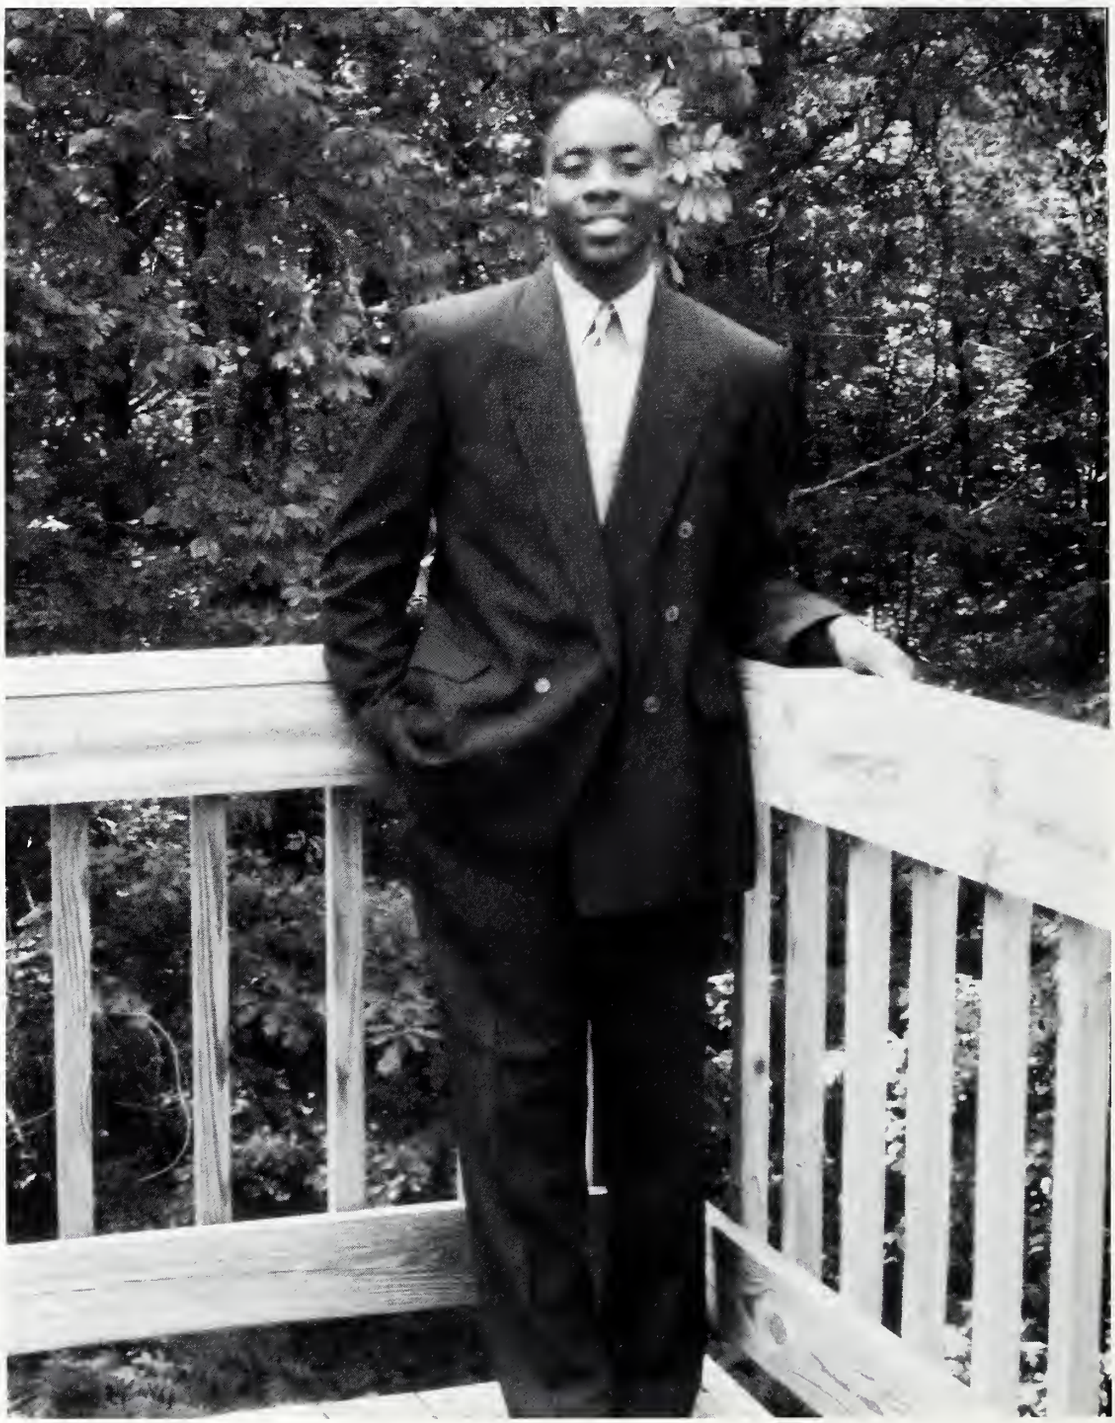

• Finally, know God loves you; the world needs you, and Oakwood counts on you to serve others whenever and wherever you can.

Continued blessings and success to you.

1997-1998

I want to start out by saying thank you. Thank you to all those people that helped me out this year. We all know the "struggles" that went on. I would like to thank Karen Brown for always being there. I would like to thank Cynthia Gorden for your constant support. Thank you for asking people to come and help me complete the book. To all those who came and volunteered: Joy Brown, Charise Mitchell, Asale Harris, Teayanne Tinsley, Stephen Wright, Craig Wright, Joel LaGuierre, Monica Phillips, Daniel Brooks, Elticia Buisson, Akuna Iheanacho, Camille Warren and Vinson D. Jones.

I would also like to thank my photographers Shawn Wray, Bennett Wooley, Phillip McIver. I'm sorry if I left anyone out. You are all appreciated. This year has been a rough one, but trials only come to make you stronger. Remember to always keep Him first.

Love,

The Miss Oakwood College Pageant

"It's All in Me"

November 16, 1997

Von Braun Center Concert Hall

7:00 P.M

On November 16, 1997, seven of Oakwoods finest took center stage at the Von Braun Civic Center Concert Hall for the fifth annual Miss Oakwood College Pageant. The theme for the 1998 Pageant was, "It's All in Me." Excitement flowed through the audience as each contestant made her first appearance while dressed in pajamas. The contestants were Heather Lowe, Maquisha Ford, Virginiah Douglas, Stacia Dulan, Monique Fields, Sobrina Thomas and Jessica Wagner. The talent segment included several dramatic monologues, a piano solo and a vocal performance. Each contestant looked stunning in their evening attire, and it was apparent that the judges would have to make a difficult decision. But in the end, Miss Jessica Wagner was crowned Miss Oakwood College 1998.

Virginiah Njeri Douglas

is a 21-year-old senior Biology major with a minor in Chemistry. She is a native of Nairobi, Kenya and intends to go to medical school.

Stacia Ginneh Dulan

is a 20-year old junior communications spanish major from Riverside, California. She aspires to become a bilingual entertainment television broadcaster and host and produce creative, positive television programs for youth that focus on cultivating good ideals and morals.

Monique Lolita Fields

is a 21-year-old senior Social Work major from Stone Mountain, Georgia. She plans to travel to South America after graduation and offer help to those in need. She intends to further her studies by obtaining a Masters in Addictive Behaviors and Family and Child Therapy.

Maquisha Danette Ford

is a 20-year-old senior comminications major from Phoenix, Arizona. she plans on opening her own business, Holistic Heath Center for Youth, which would encourage young poeple to take the holistic approach to living.

Heather Lowe

is a junior Accounting major and Music minor, from Hyattsville, Maryland. Her future goals include obtaining her master's degree in Finance and Accounting. She also wishes to become a Certified Public Accountant.

Sobrina Andrea Thomas

is a 20-year-old junior Biology major from Columbus, Ohio. Her lifelong aspiration is to open a dental practice and clinic and teach at a college of dentistry.

Jessica Wagner

is a sophomore English major. She is the president of the sophomore class and memeber of Phi Eta Sigma National Honor society. Her future goals and dreams include becoming a lawyer and continuing her presence in the entertainment business. As Miss Oakwood, she hopes to encourage other young women to strive for excellence in academics and personal development.

The students are waiting in line to be served Cafe food. They obviously don't attend Oakwood yet!

TAKE FIVE

After lunch, the srudents are having a little recreation time at the piano

It's that time again. Time to g o home. We really enjoyed having you here. Come again as official Oakwood Students! (hopefully, next years's College Days students won't make so much noise during your mid-terms.)

International

Food a little too spicy, Giana?

Food Fest

Marixa brings her West Indian and Canadian spirit to the festivities.

Dressed just right to show culture and school spirit!

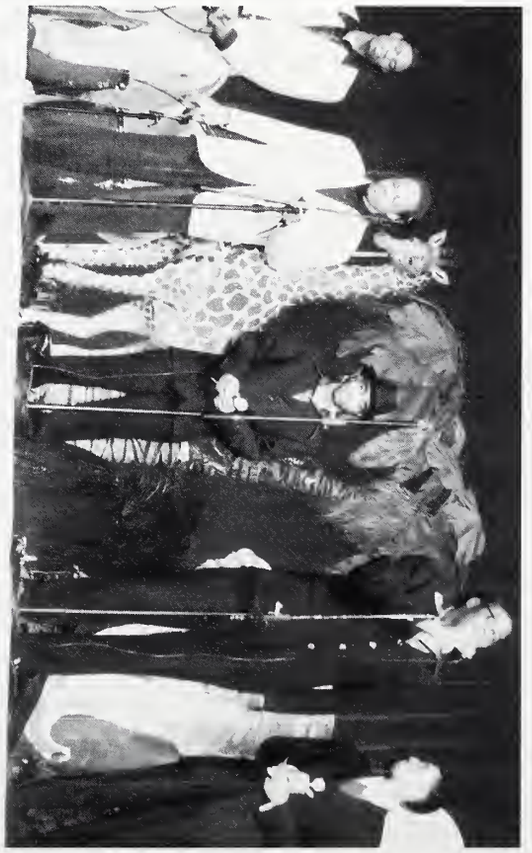

Forget about dressing up! These gals would rather taste the internaitonal experience!

An Evening in Paradise

The banquet was truly a night of elegance. Our USM Social Vice President, Vincent Smith, and Student Activities Director, Theresa Allen, turned the Von Braun into "An Evening in Paradise." Oakwood College has a large array of talent! We heard Bemi Ukuedojor's sultry rendition of "Killing Me Softly." An ensemble group also performed. Aliethia Evans and Russell Purce sang a beautiful rendition of "Unforgetable." The featured artists of the night were Jonathan Slocomb and Lisa Page. Jonathan Slocomb had the crowd in an uproar with his comic routine. Lisa Page brought the house down with her gospel stylings.

Don't They Look Lovely!

A Message
from the Senior Class President

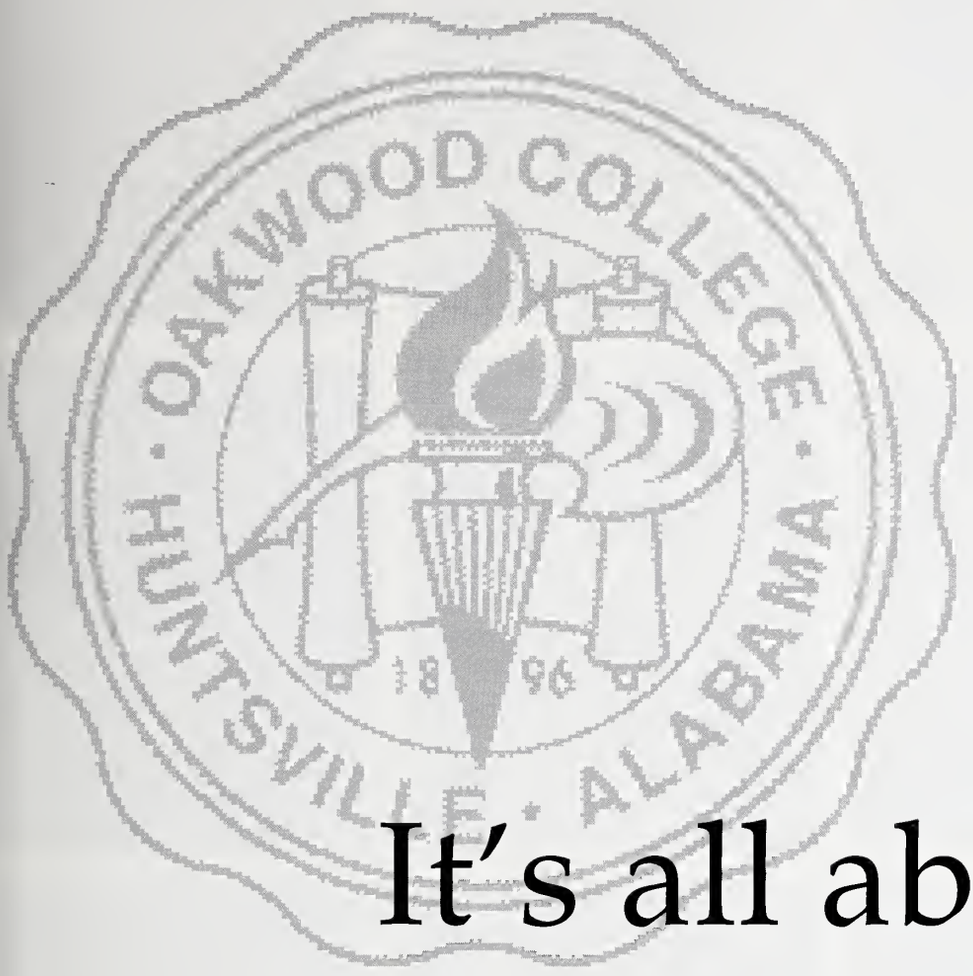

Shawn Smith

We, the graduating class of 1998, have truly experienced the sentiments expressed by the great apostle Paul. We have been troubled on every side by the criticisms of friends and family, yet not distressed; we have been perplexed by tests, quizzes and final exams, but not in despair; persecuted with financial burdens and responsibilities, but not forsaken; cast down by dismal grades, but not destroyed.

As a class, we have been to the mountain top and have also tarried in the depths of the ocean. However, as we now stand on the brink of the 21st century and look beyond into the coming era, we bring with us the skills, the acumen, and the integrity that Oakwood College has bestowed upon us. Our class has certainly entered to learn, so that we may depart to serve. We look to a new century and face its challenges knowing that our alma mater has prepared us well. We have no fear of the future because we have seen how God has lead us in the past. As we leave this place, with heart and eyes of tears, we know that the almighty God is by our side to help us face the complexities of tomorrow.

Through it all, God has brought us, with patience and perseverance, to complete this milestone in our lives. Now, like the apostle we can boldly say, "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith."

It's all about You!

the LEAP Graduates

Oakwood's Leadership Education for the Adult Professional program offers many advantages to professionals seeking to complete a degree or enhance their skills. This 18 month program provides:

- Educational partnerships with career choices
- Expanded learning options
- Networking opportunities with other adults
- Sharper interpersonal skills
- Stronger business skills
- Immediate use of material learned
- The personal satisfaction of achieving a planned goal
- Increased confidence
- A convenient road to accredited B.S. degree

Oakwood College is very proud of the LEAP program and the many professionals, even current employees, who value a good education.

And now, presenting the 1998 graduates of the LEAP program!

Congratulations to all the seniors who are graduating and to all those who are still aspiring!

Shout out to all those who did not have their pictures in the yearbook, and to all organizations that are trying so hard to be up front and true. Good luck!

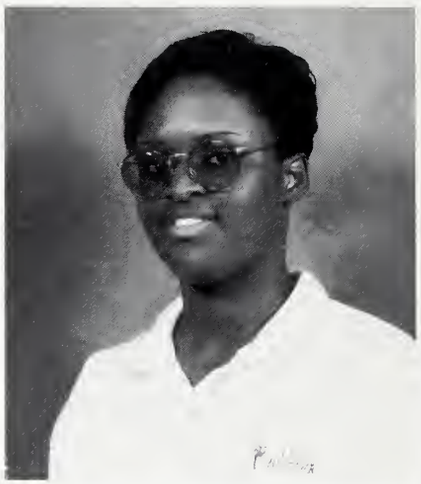

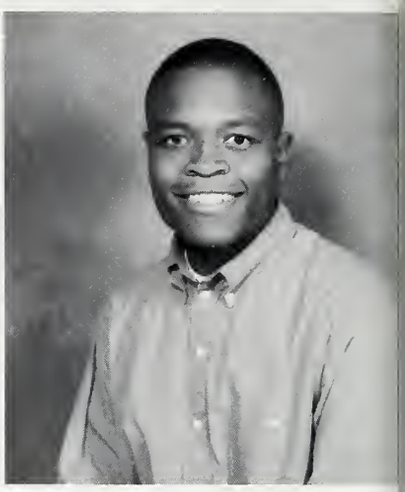

If your biography does not appear, it is because you did not complete your information sheet.

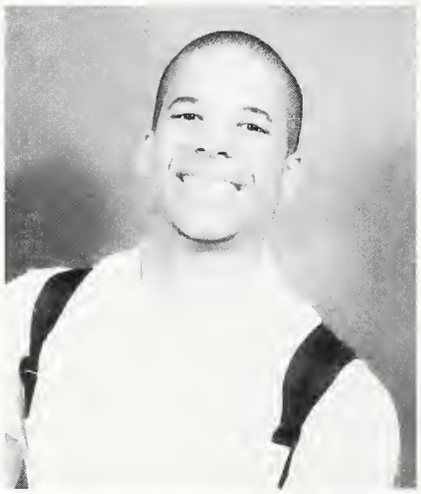

It's all about You!

It's all about...

...having friends.

It's all about You!

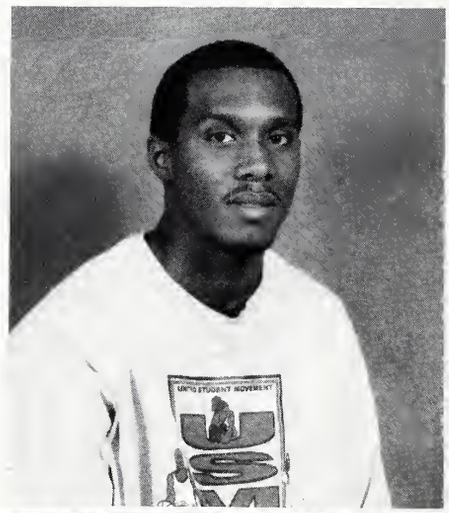

the V.I.P.

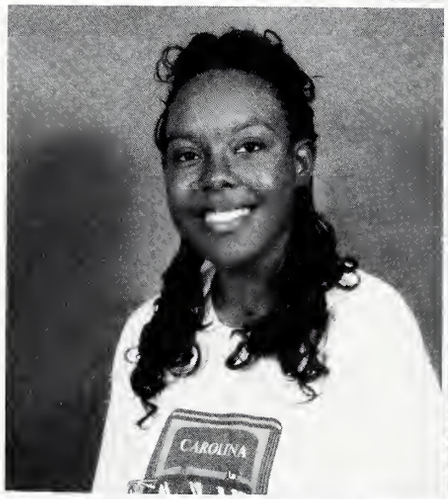

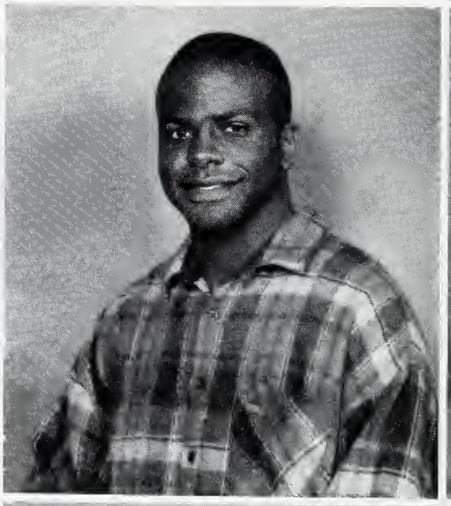

"I will make thy name to be remembered in all generations...." Psalms 45:17

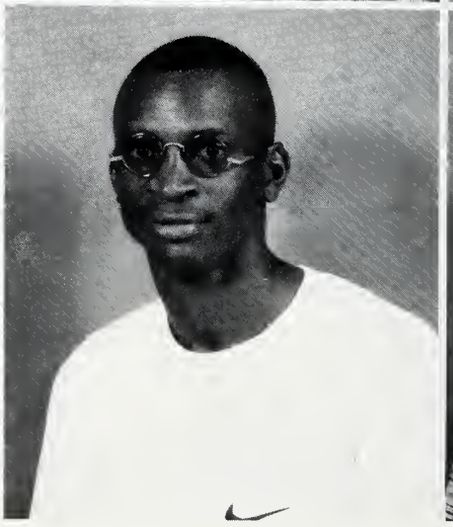

We apologize that we could not list the names of the Very Important People pictured on the next few pages.

Thank God He can.
